CONDITIONS OF PLACEMENT

Please read the following information relating to camps conducted by Edmund Rice Camps Victoria Inc. A signed copy, signifying acceptance of these conditions and a belief on the case worker's part that the child seeking placement is suited to ERC programs, must accompany each application for placement on an Edmund Rice Camp.

1. Edmund Rice Camps are staffed entirely by volunteers, principally aged 17 to 30. While volunteers with some professional qualifications hold executive leadership roles on each camp, the majority of leaders do not hold such qualifications.
2. All information which may affect the behaviour of the child on the camp, including their interaction with leaders and other participants within the age range of the camp, must be forwarded with the application.
3. Transport of the child to and from the designated pick up and drop off point, at the commencement and conclusion of the camp, is not the responsibility of Edmund Rice Camps.
4. The caseworker's contact phone number, both during business hours and after hours, is to be provided with the application.
5. Should a child need to be sent home from a camp, due to illness or inappropriate behaviour, it is the agency's responsibility to provide transport.
6. The child seeking placement fits the criteria of being either socially or economically disadvantaged.
7. Edmund Rice Camps Inc. reserves the right to accept or reject any application based on the best possible match between applicants and the skills of the leaders volunteering for a particular camp
8. It is the agency's responsibility to ensure that the child has appropriate clothing and equipment for the camp. ERC must be notified in advance if extra clothing and/or equipment is needed.

I have read and understood the above conditions under which Edmund Rice Camps conduct programs in Victoria. Based on this information I believe the child I am referring for placement on this camp is suited to the conditions under which the camp is to operate.
